Inverse Problem for Quantum Graphs: Complete Solution using Magnetic Control

Pavel Kurasov

Complete solution to the inverse spectral problem for the Schrödinger operator on a finite compact metric graph is presented. To solve the problem we use magnetic control allowing to collect spectral data without destroying the graph. Our approach is based on generalising ideas of the Boundary Control method for the Schrödinger equation in dimension one.