

OTKR Vienna, 19-22 December 2019 / Final Announcement

Dear participants,

here is some more information about the upcoming event.

- A preliminary schedule is now available on the conference <http://www.asc.tuwien.ac.at/~otind> (menu point "Scientific"). Slots are 30 minutes (25 minutes talk + 5 minutes discussion).
- Information about directions at the TU Vienna and lecture halls used for the conference are available on the website (menu point "The Venue").
- A special session dedicated to the memory of Hagen Neidhardt takes place Friday morning. Some of his major collaborators will give talks and share some memories with us.
- Registration takes place Thursday from 9'30-10'00 and 11'00-11'45 in front of the main lecture hall FH HS 5. Participants who arrive later, are asked to personally contact one of the organisers who will then take care of the registration. Please remember that the registration fee and possible additional fees for accompanying persons should be paid in cash at registration.
- If you intend to not use the blackboard but a pdf-presentation, please send the pdf by email to the conference address otind@asc.tuwien.ac.at.
- As a service to the community we plan to post slides on the conference website. If you disagree that your slides are made available in this way, please indicate this in an email.

Looking forward to seeing you in Vienna!

The organisers
